The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-3 and 7-10 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Montgomery et al., for reasons of record set forth in the previous Office Actions, mailed 13 July 2004 and 27 July 2005.

Claims 1, 3, 7, 8, 10 and 17 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Montgomery et al. in view of Felgner et al., for reasons of record set forth in the previous Office Actions, mailed 13 July 2004 and 27 July 2005.

Claims 1-3, 7-10 and 17 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Montgomery et al. in view of Robinson et al., for reasons of record set forth in the previous Office Actions, mailed 13 July 2004 and 27 July 2005.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

With respect to the three art rejections above, at the second page of Applicants' remarks filed 22 December 2005, the renewed petition under 37 CFR 1.78 (a)(3) is pointed out. Indeed, the petition was granted on 9 August 2006. However, a reconsideration and rereading of the priority applications 08/032,388 and 08/089,985 fails to find a description of the instantly claimed embodiments making use of V1Jns. It would appear that support for these embodiments does not find priority in said applications, even though the embodiments drawn to V1J do. Thus, the earliest priority date for the V1Jns embodiments is from the filing of PCT/US94/02751, on 14 March 1994. Since an entire claim has but a single filing date, the instant claims have priority back to 14 March 1994 as they all encompass the V1Jns embodiments. (Applicants should note that a claim limited to V1J embodiments would have the earlier priority date and would not be subject to the instant rejection.)
